Local Group Helps Community Get A Step Ahead

Net Worth, a "community-active organization," joined efforts recently with the Westside Action Group and the National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees Union to help Westside residents prepare for U.S. Postal examinations scheduled for the summer.

The organizations held five training sessions at the San Bernardino Boy's and Girl's Club where job applicants received tips on address checking, memory skill building, and math skills.

"As soon as we learned that the U.S. Post Office was accepting applications for jobs," said Jeanetta Lukes, Net Worth program coordinator, "we collaborated to help our friends and neighbors from the Westside get a head start on studying for the upcoming examinations."

Approximately 400 applicants attended the two hour sessions and proceeds were given to the Boy's and Girl's Club as a fundraiser.

According to Rikke Van Johnson, Net Worth Vice-President and session trainer, the training was designed to help provide residents with information to make the highest possible score on the test.

"Our hope is that all applicants from the community will walk into the official examination room with more knowledge, more confidence, and skills," Johnson explains.

Net Worth was formed eight months ago to serve the Westside community through special projects and activities such as job training, personal development, and community-active events. A Community Pride Day is scheduled for July.

"We plan to work with the community," says Curtis Clark, Net Worth President, "and assist with programs that will be created from the suggestions and wants of the residents."

According to Clark, many social agencies fall short when, in the initial stages of development, they do not include the people they are trying to serve. Residents are asked to provide Net Worth with their suggestions and interests for programs or to become a member by calling (909) 514-4036.

CHP Officer Arrested In Loma Linda

Riverside County District Attorney, Grover Trask, announced recently that Donald V. Whitted, an officer with the California Highway Patrol, was arrested recently at his Loma Linda residence for numerous violations of insurance fraud and grand theft.

Officer Whitted's arrest followed an extensive investigation by the Department of California Highway Patrol Bureau of Internal Affairs. The investigation, spearheaded by Sergeant Steve Lerwill, commenced when authorities were alerted to Whitted's alleged job related workers' compensation claim.

The investigation revealed that Whitted was injured while playing basketball in a local church league, and not during a job related activity as reported by the officer.

President Comes To Inland Empire For Norton Re-Use

Local community members were invited to see President Bill Clinton last Friday at Norton Air Force Base. Excitement grew in the crowd as the most seasoned politicians showed how pleased they were to be among the 300-500 invited guests.

Air Force One touched down at the 9:45 appointed time. The day was beautiful, one of the best San Bernardino has seen in quite a while.

On March 31, 1994, Norton Air Force Base was closed as a military base and the Norton Air Force Base Re-Use Committee, composed of elected officials, took over planning to use part of it as an International Airport, a world trade center and as a site to locate the Defense Finance and Accounting Service Center bringing 750 jobs to the site.

The visit was seen as a reward for a community which has used a bipartisan approach to make the property viable.

Congressman George Brown told the Black Voice following the visit that, the President holds Norton up to other communities facing base closures. "He is very proud of the efforts of the San Bernardino and surrounding communities, in making the closure work."

Clinton said, after remembering Jackie Onassis Kennedy, who had died earlier, "The main reason I ran for president is I thought we ought to get the country moving again and that we ought to pull the country together again. I'll never forget the day I came to the Inland Empire and played in that big softball game. It wasn't my

Parents Outraged At Questions On Math Proficiency Test

CHICAGO (AP)—A sixth grader didn't even try to do his math test correctly because he was afraid his teachers would think he knew about prostitution, drugs and drive-by shootings.

Questions on the test included:

"Rufus is pimping three girls. If the price is $65 for each trick, how many tricks will each girl have to turn before Rufus can pay for his $800 a day crack habit?"

"Johnny has an AK-47 with a 40-round clip. If he misses six out of 10 shots and shoots 13 times at each drive-by shooting, how many drive-by shootings can he attend before he has to reload?"

"Martin wants to cut his half-pound of heroin to make 20 percent more profit. How many ounces of cut will he need?"

"Willis gets $200 for stealing a BMW, $50 for stealing a Chevy and $100 for a 4x4. If he has stolen two BMWs and three 4x4s, how many Chevys will he have to steal to make $800?"

"I just put anything down," said Ethan Bailey, 12, a student in the class assigned the test Friday at Horatio N. May School in a poor, heavily Black neighborhood on the West Side.

"I didn't want to put down real answers because (the teacher) might think I know this stuff," Ethan said.

Ethan's mother, Cynthia Bailey, was among about eight parents who confronted the teacher and school Principal Sandra McCann on Monday.

Bailey said the teacher acknowledged that giving the test was a mistake and offered to resign.

"He went on to say that he felt that maybe this was the only way he could relate to the children," Bailey said. "I said, 'That's no way to relate to anybody's children.'"

The teacher could not be reached by phone Monday.

Some teachers advocate using street vernacular to teach students, said Jackie Gallagher, a spokeswoman for the Chicago Teacher's Union.

"But if our goal as teachers and educators is to raise the level of our students' involvement in society, discussing crack sales, pimping and knocking up women is not the way to do it," Gallagher said.

The teacher has been suspended pending an investigation, McCann said. He also underwent psychological evaluation Monday, McCann said.

Before You Vote, Know Your Candidates

WILBERT SMITH

Candidate for State Superintendent

Making schools safe, cutting waste and mismanagement in education and giving more local control to school districts are Wilbert Smith's goals in his bid to be elected state superintendent of public instruction.

"The thing I'm most concerned about is making our schools safe," said Smith, the only African-American among the dozen candidates vying to become California's top educational administrator in the June 7th election.

"Nothing can occur as far as learning goes unless our kids and teachers feel safe," the 43-year-old Los Angeles native added.

As state superintendent, Smith said he will seek solutions to school safety among the students themselves including peer mediation of disputes.

"The students can talk out their differences rather than shoot it out" he said. Smith, a reserve Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputy for 15 years, added he wants to build coalitions across the state between local school systems and law enforcement agencies.

"We have to do whatever it takes to make our campuses secure including the presence of security personnel and, if the need is clear, arming them while on campus," he noted.

At the same time, Smith stressed the need to come up with solutions to issues like school safety at the local level.

Every community has its unique characteristics and challenges," he said. "We should not have a one-size-fits-all approach to education."

To pay for these other measures, Smith said he sees no need to raise more taxes for the state's $31 billion a year public education system.

Only half of every educational dollar reaches the classroom in California today," he said. "That signifies a tremendous waste in public education and I want to learn what are the unnecessary rules and bureaucracy that leads to this waste."

The need for busing to achieve school desegregation and possibility of privatizing school services such as accounting and data processing are areas targeted by Smith to help achieve savings.

"I'd also like to dwell on giving local control to schools," Smith said. "We no longer have public education. It has become the state educational system where the state dictates everything with tons and tons of rules and regulations."

"There is no correlation between spending and a better education," Smith continued. "The factors most associated with effective education are local control of schools and local community-based organizations. This means I give unlimited support to more charter school districts."

Unless one of the 12 candidates for superintendent receives more than 50 percent of the total vote on June 7, the two candidates with the most votes will face each other in the November election. "Believe it or not, I'm looking to be No. 2 in June," Smith told THE OBSERVER newspaper in Sacramento. "if we're in a runoff (in November), we're O.K."

JAMES F. PENMAN

Candidate For District Attorney

With Dennis Kottmeier's decision to retire as District Attorney, and Dick Williams' decision to leave the Sheriff's post, the voters of San Bernardino County must select a new generation of leaders to craft their law enforcement strategies. At no time in the county's history have candidates for public office faced more awesome responsibilities.

"In announcing my candidacy for District Attorney, let me outline the five principles I will follow in launching a Crusade Against Violence.

Many of these flow from my background. As the elected City Attorney of San Bernardino, I have had three major responsibilities: handling the city's legal business; enforcing the laws governing the behavior of city officials; and prosecuting city filed misdemeanors.

But beyond these narrow duties, my office carries with it the responsibility of working to protect the citizens of the community. Because San Bernardino is both an old city with aging neighborhoods, and a county seat, my colleagues and I have had to grapple with the modern criminal element sooner and more intensively than leaders in other parts of the county."

The five principles are:

1. If the District Attorney's office is not bringing the battle to the criminal element, then we are nothing but bureaucrats processing wasted lives.

2. The District Attorney's office must make the aggressive identification, rooting out and smothering of the hard core criminal element a central focus of its work. We cannot afford to wait until they just happen to get caught.

3. A major goal of the District Attorney's Office must be to mobilize the community so that ways are found to deflect the increasing number of kids, who are misguided but not truly evil, into more positive lifestyles.

4. There will never be enough manpower to police, prosecute and oversee criminals in a way that will ensure the safety of the community. The District Attorney's Office must not only attack crime, but do so with insight and intelligence.

5. Success in the District Attorney's office will go to people who are leaning forward in the saddle, passionately thinking of ways to make the Crusade Against Violence a success.

James F. Penman, San Bernardino City Attorney; 46 years old. He attended San Bernardino City Schools from Kindergarten through High School. Worked his way through college as a Fireman for San Bernardino County. Graduated from California State University, San Bernardino, in 1969, and majored in History. He received a Juris Doctorate from Western State University, College of Law, in 1979.

RUBEN S. AYALA

Re-Election To California
State Senate

California Association of Highway Patrolman Endorse
Senator Ruben Ayala for Re-election

The California Association of Highway Patrolmen (CAHP) has today announced their endorsement of Senator Ruben S. Ayala (D-Chino) for reelection to the California State Senate.

"Both the active and retired members of the CAHP are sincerely appreciative of having the opportunity to work with you on legislation affecting the California Highway Patrol stated the endorsement letter, signed by the organization's President Gordon Koolman, Executive Manager Jon Hamm, Legislative Chairman Kenn Morton and Legislative Advocate Aaron Read.

"Through your legislative actions, you have demonstrated a real concern for law enforcement issues and for the members of this Association," continued the endorsement, which emanated from the organization's Sacramento headquarters.

When Frank Johnson came to the Riverside, Registrar of Voters in 1978, being retired from the Air Force after 23 years, he never thought about running for office. He is now in a countywide race to keep the consolidated position of County Clerk-Recorder/Ex Officio Registrar of Voters. "I didn't opt to run for this office I was appointed, however it is a part of the Organization 2000 called for on the advice of a major consultant report, and it is more efficient," he said. Johnson is an associate pastor at Loveland Church, Rancho Cucamonga.

Johnson's main goal is to create a cohesive team in the County Clerk's office toward providing outstanding customer service efficiency and customer services.

"The information highway will open new vistas and our bi-word is service," he said.

Upgrade and improve delivery of services based upon philosophy of customer service is always the first objective of a county government agency.

POLLING PLACES

Commencing May 18 and through election day, June 7, voters who reside within the boundaries of any of Riverside County's incorporated areas can call their respective *City Clerk's office for location of their assigned polling place within that city.

Voters who live in unincorporated areas of the County will continue to call the County Registrar of Voters office at (909) 275-8700 or (800) 773-VOTE for assistance in locating assigned polling place locations.

Delfina E. Franco, Chief Deputy Registrar of Voters reminds voters that current law requires polling locations to be accessible to persons who are elderly, in wheelchairs, etc. In the very few instances where such accommodations are not immediately possible such voters have been noticed that their polling place is not accessible on the sample ballot. Following are the various provisions concerning voter accessibility:

A "YES" or "NO" printed under the handicapped symbol/ arrow on the back cover of the pamphlet indicates whether or not your assigned polling place is accessible to physically handicapped voters. You are hereby advised of your right to vote in the following alternate ways:

a) By Mail. You may request an absentee ballot and vote by mail. Simply complete the application on the back cover of the pamphlet. The application must be mailed to reach the Registrar of Voters office by the deadline given.

b) Outside the Polling Place. If you are unable to enter the polling place because of a physical handicap, a precinct board member is authorized to bring an official ballot to your vehicle or otherwise immediately adjacent to the polling place on election day. Prior to voting the ballot you will fill out a handicapped voter certificate in lieu of your signature in the Roster Index of Voters.

Delfina E. Franco, Chief Deputy Registrar of Voters reminds voters that California election law authorizes a voter to become a permanent absent voter under the following conditions:

Any voter who has lost, or has lost the use of, one or more limbs; has lost, or has lost the use of, both hands; is unable to move about without the aid of an assistant device (i.e., canes, crutches, walker, wheelchair); is suffering from lung disease, blindness, or cardiovascular disease; has a significant limitation in the use of the lower extremities; is suffering from a diagnosed disease or disorder which substantially impairs or interferes with the person's mobility; a spouse who resides with, and is the primary caregiver; or a non-spousal primary caregiver (a blood relative or family member related by marriage) who resides with and has primary responsibility for the care of a voter may apply for permanent absent voter status. If you qualify for permanent absent voter status, write the Registrar of Voters office at 1260 Palmyria Avenue, Riverside, CA 92507-1703 and provide your name; residence address; address where ballot is to be mailed, if different from the place of residence; qualifying reasons (briefly stated) and your signature.

The Riverside County Registrar of Voters office, in response to applications received from voters, is busy mailing official absentee ballots to same. (Also, certain voters in "mailed ballot" precincts for which no polling place is established and permanent absentee voters have received their official election ballot via mail).

Whether voting their official ballot via the mail-ballot method or at the polls on election day (June 7, 1994) voters are cautioned to turn each official ballot card over and VOTE BOTH SIDES of each card, as applicable. Matters to be voted on are printed on both sides of most ballot cards.

Also, voters are reminded to return their voted absentee ballot in sufficient time to reach the Registrar of Voters office by the close of polls on election day. Ballots received after the close of polls cannot be counted. If timely delivery of the voted absentee ballot via mail is doubtful, the voter, or a member of his/her immediate family may drop the voted and sealed absentee ballot off at polling place in Riverside County on election day up to the time of polls closing.

Leon Kennedy Visits Rio Vista Elementary School

Leon Kennedy, actor/producer, was the guest speaker at Rio Vista Elementary School recently.

Kennedy gave an inspirational talk that gave the students something to think about.

He told the students, "surround yourself with positive people." A lesson in life is that you are not too young to plan your life.

In his life he knew what he wanted to do by the time he was 15 years old.

"I wanted to be a movie star." He planned it by first becoming a disc jockey, then an on air personality.

Kennedy was too young to work on the air that summer, but he volunteered and cleaned up the station. He lived a long way from the station, but did not let that deter him. After he did everything they wanted him to do he would then practice. He pretended he was on the air reading the news or weather, or anything, just to practice, preparing himself for the day he would take over the job he so desperately wanted. "My friends were saying Leon isn't any fun anymore. He won't hang out with us anymore."

Leon didn't have time, he had a plan for his future," he said.

One day the break came. There was an opening. "I told the manager I wanted the job, the manager said at 17, I was too young. I told him I paid my dues taking out the trash and anything else, while I was preparing myself for the break. I gave him a tape and after listening to it, he said he sounds like us, and I became the youngest D.J. in Cleveland, Ohio. At the age of 20 he had a syndicated television show and by 22 I had made more than one multi-million dollar film. I put energy in what I wanted to do," he said.

"The number one roadblock to success is drugs. The drug dealer doesn't like you; he likes your money. Gangs are another problem, there are only two results to gangs, to end up in prison or go to jail." He told the girls to leave alone the boys who are in gangs. "Surround yourself with positive people."

He told the students they are divinely created and they are important. "If you respect yourself, others will respect you."

The Principal at the school is Marian Blackwell.

Leon Kennedy tells students to "surround yourself with positive people."

- * Avoid caffeine and alcohol which act as a diuretic.
- * Plan to do the more strenuous tasks in the morning or evening when it is cooler.
- * Plan adequate breaks out of the sun.

- * Eat light meals during the day (fruits, veggies).
- * Dress in light colored, light weight (cotton) clothing to avoid heat retention.

- * If you start to feel the effects of heat illness stop your work! Seek shade and start drinking fluids.

HEAT ILLNESS

Our Bodies

Ernest Levister, Jr., M.D.

Replacing fluid alone is sufficient to treat or prevent this common syndrome.

For quick replacement, drink a balance electrolyte drink such as Gatorade. Salt or other mineral tablets are not effective and may worsen the situation by increasing the need for more fluid to restore fluid and electrolyte balance.

Heat exhaustion is more serious with worsening symptoms of weakness, dizziness, mental confusion and dehydration. Dehydration has impaired the body's ability to regulate heat, and body temperature rises to as much as 104 degrees. Hospitalization or emergency fluid replacement is required.

Adequate hydration is the key to overexposure. Drink

DEAR DR. LEVISTER: I am a construction worker. During the summer I frequently suffer from heat cramps and exhaustion. What can I do? T.T.

DEAR T.T.: Hyperthermia (abnormally high body temperature) or heat illness, is a common problem during periods of extreme hot temperatures. The elderly and newborns are at high risk.

The problem occurs when the body produces more heat than it can dissipate. Most often this problem happens when dehydration accompanies excessive heat production. Problems range from mild stages of heat cramps and heat fatigue to more serious heat exhaustion or heat stroke, which can be fatal.

Heat cramps (painful contractions of muscles) is thought to be caused by dehydration, which creates an imbalance between fluid and electrolytes, including salt and potassium.

gram a more mainstream program that can attract the necessary funding to make it a top notch program."

The SELF program is a non-profit group made up of volunteer African-American police and correctional officers who have pooled together their knowledge and resources to set up and run the program. The program has shown to have a real positive effect on the boys that have completed the program.

The SELF group has been very busy trying to get the word out to the communities. The group is in the planning stages of producing TV commercials and have just started a new SELF chapter in Inglewood, CA. For more information about SELF send a self-addressed envelope to 1583 W. ## How to nourish a community byte by byte.

At AT&T, we know there's a hunger for opportunity in urban communities. And satisfying that craving with job and literacy skills is the reason that AT&T has been a supporter of Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America for more than ten years.

Through innovative programs like OIC's computerized Learning Opportunity Centers, AT&T is helping to bring marketable job skills to the grass roots from which healthy communities grow. ## Clayton Delights Women Of Achievement Honorees And Guests

Black Voice Foundation presented, Trailblazers of the Inland Empire, saluting local women and honoring the memory of former UCR Chancellor Rosemary Schraer by naming an award in her name and instituting a joint scholarship.

Xernona Clayton, V.P. Turner Broadcasting, brought the house down. Clayton told a true story of racism, its affects, and how in a very humorous way got her a trip to Hawaii and spoke before close to 5,000 people.

She received an invitation from a Rome, Georgia, business and professional woman's group to speak. Clayton had a good reputation, but these women had never seen her. They asked her to send a bio so they could begin the publicity. When they saw she was Black they had one of the more liberal members call and "dis-invited" her; they could not have a Black address their group. Clayton went to a dinner where she was the dinner partner to the daily newspaper publisher and she told him what had happened. Clayton, who is well known all over the nation, was upset that she had been dis-invited and that it was because of her race. The next day there was an editorial about it in the daily paper. Soon the news wire picked it up and cameras showed up in Rome, GA to interview the women. The excuse given was that, Clayton was so popular, there wasn't a place large enough to hold all who wanted to attend.

The national President of the affiliate organization called to apologize and was also interviewed by all the major networks about what had happened. She wanted to make up the slight to Clayton so she proposed Clayton be the keynote speaker at the National Convention in Hawaii. Clayton thought about it and went. The feeling she had as she entered the huge hall of close to 5,000 people was one of awe. She said God made it so she didn't have to speak to 250 people; he gave her 5,000. She did more with that to integrate that national organization than anyone in its history.

Clayton used the example in a very comical way to say that an audience should never look that way (all White). She said this audience at the Raincross Square is the way an audience should look. Women and men of every race. She honored the honorees who were selected because of their involvement in the entire community.

Honored were Esther Estrada, former Councilwoman in San Bernardino, June Foreman, community activist and Ola Faye Stephens, community worker and former business woman.

A surprised guest was presented the late Dr. Rosemary Schraer (Chancellor University of California Riverside) Woman of Achievement Award. Sylvia Martin a teacher, and first African-American President of the UCR Alumni Association. The award was presented in memory of Schraer as tribute to her involvement in the African-American community and the way she encouraged Black students to go into higher education.

Jacqueline Mimms and Paulette Brown-Hinds were two students who spoke about the affect Schraer had on their education. Mimms took and passed her comps and now will write her dissertation, Hinds will complete course work for her Ph.D. in the fall.

Martin has the same qualities of Schraer. She helps youth without fanfare and many times without thanks. She is an outstanding role model.

Dr. Jim Erickson, announced a Black Voice/UCR Scholarship. Eligible students must attend, UCR and major in English, or any media studies.

Music was provided by the Randall Family.

Awards were presented by Mayor Ron Loveridge, and the offices of Mayor Tom Minor, Congressman George Brown, S.B. and Riverside Board of Supervisors, Senator Bob Presely, and Rubin Ayala, the Assemblyman Jo Baca and Eunice Williamson, former Woman of Achievement and President of the NAACP.

Mayor Loveridge, said he was pleased to be on hand to present awards to the hard working deserving women.

How Do I STAY ON THE RIGHT TRACK

QUESTION: Dear Dr. Woods, Once a person has made a decision to live a "true Christian life" how do they stay on the right track?

W. D. Colton

ANSWER: The Bible says in Ephesians 6, "having done all to stand, stand!" Jesus faced temptations, so will you. The key is to do like Jesus and make a firm stand on God's Word. A human baby needs a good healthy diet in order to grow. Likewise, as a Christian you need a consistent diet. God gave us His Word as spiritual food for spiritual growth. You need to be in a church where

Questions And Answers

the Bible is taught and the people are living the Word. Also, the Bible warns against companionship with people who are not Christians. You are compared as light with darkness. Your life is different. You need fellowship with fellow Christian believers. The devil hates committed Christians. That is why there are so few of them. But thank God, Jesus Christ is greater than the devil!

If you have a question that you would like answered, write: Dr. Reginald L. Woods, Life Changing Ministries, P.O. Box 9778, San Bernardino, CA 92427-9778.

Celebration To Commemorate 15th Anniversary Of Black

The International Association of African-American Music (IAAAM) will commemorate the 15th anniversary of African-American Music Month by honoring some of music's most accomplished and contributory individuals, in Washington, DC at the JW Marriott Hotel, June 2 - 5. Honorary chairpersons for this year's festivities are recording artists En Vogue, Vanessa Williams, Queen Latifah and Dr. Billy Taylor; Mercury Records President, Ed Eckstine; and Congressman Lucien Blackwell of Pennsylvania.

Sponsored by Anheuser Busch, American Airlines, Shades Of You - Maybeline Cosmetics and JW Marriott Corporation, the IAAAM '94 Celebration is series of events which is open to the public. Each year, the celebration attracts established artists, producers, songwriters and industry professionals, as well as aspiring novices, who converge in honor of African-Americans' significant contribution to the music community.

This year's activities will offer a variety of panels and performances, including: keynote, motivational/health & stress management speaker, Dr. Therman Evans; the invitational Producers'

Collective; the Emerging Artists Showcase, featuring up and coming signed and unsigned artists; the Ecumenical Prayer Breakfast, featuring a performance by Yolanda Adams; and the Diamond Awards for Excellence Gala. 1994 Diamond Awards for Excellence recipients include: superstar, Stevie Wonder; Blues legend, KoKo Taylor; Hip-Hop music trailblazers, GrandMaster Flash & the Furious Five; Grammy Award winning, Reggae masters, Black Uhuru; Jazz dignitary, Dr. Billy Taylor; Gospel great, Andre Crouch; renowned producer, Andre Fischer, currently senior v.p. of A&R for MCA records as well as this years Founder Award to entertainment mogul, Russell Simmons, Rush Communications, producers of HBO's Russell Simmons Def Jam Comedy Show. The foundation also plans to honor former President Jimmy Carter for his role in establishing June as African-American Music Month.

Also set to receive IAAAM's 1994 Contributor Awards are industry veteran, Myrna Williams; entertainment lawyer, Vernon Slaughter; nationally syndicated radio personality, Walt Love; and prominent music journalist, James Jones.

It was the baddest of times, it was the worst of times. It was the time of Walt Frazier, it was the time of Richard Nixon. It was stickball players on Saturday morning; it was crazy glue sniffers on Saturday night. It was the Jackson 5, the Partridge Family, Afro-Sheen, Don Cornelius, Peace, Love and Sooooouuuulll. It was a time and a place called Crooklyn. Crooklyn can be seen at a local theatre near you. Clockwise, from left: Zelda Harris (Troy), Alfre Woodard (Carolyn), TseMach Washington (Joseph), Delroy Lindo (Woody), Carlton Williams (Clinton), Chris Knowings (Nate, bottom) and Sharif Rashid (Wendell) are the Carmichael family in Spike Lee's moving comedy drama "Crooklyn."

Indianapolis Gets Nod For AKA's 56th Convention

The Indianapolis 500 becomes the Indianapolis 10,000 on July 9th thru 15th when an international women's group converges on the Indiana Convention Center for its biennial convention.

Alpha Kappa Alpha (AKA), a 130,000 member organization noted for its humane and philanthropic efforts, has tapped the Hoosier city as the host for its meet which will draw representatives from throughout the United States, the Virgin Islands, the Bahamas, England, Germany, Bermuda, and Korea. AKA international president Dr. Mary Shy Scott of Atlanta, GA said the convention is designed to provide a forum for AKA members to address issues, review policies, elect officials, and transact other business. In the process, "We (AKA) and our families will drop more than $5 million dollars into the local economy, but equally important will be the kinds of activities we will hold for the community" Dr. Scott said.

In concert with its mission of service, AKA will sponsor a number of programs which provide inspiration, education, enrichment, and/or entertainment for the host community, Dr. Scott said.

Public events include an ecumenical service, a public meeting, and political, youth, and media forums, with each featuring a prominent personality or trailblazer. An exhibition of educational materials, crafts, and other consumer products will also be operated.

GTE East Vice-President for Public Affairs Clare D. Coxey presents a commissioned piece of art on the arts to AKA president Dr. Mary Shy Scott, an arts enthusiast, during a GTE-sponsored reception recently held in her honor.

Special activities, including a concert by AKA's own Gladys Knight, have also been planned to entertain the members.

The agenda will be released in June. Individuals interested in exhibiting should contact AKA Headquarters at 5656 South Stony Island Ave., Chicago, 60637, or call 800-252-1908.

President Clinton Comes To San Bernardino

best softball game. But it was one of my better days. I left that crowd thinking this is America. We're a very diverse country, but we're at our best when we're pulling together."

"When President Kennedy was elected, he inspired a whole generation of Americans, without regard to party, with the promise that public life could be a noble and good thing, and that together we could make a difference. The country had grown somewhat weary after the burdens of World War II and then the war in Korea, and he said we ought to get the country moving again. And people felt good about it, even when they disagreed about the specifics."

"More important than any specific project, my fellow Americans, we have to believe in our better selves again, we cannot be, we cannot be distracted, divided, diverted, dragged down. This is a time for uplift, for looking to the future and for pulling together. You have proved that it works, let us do it for all of America."

Thank you and God bless you."

The President said, Supervisor Jerry Eaves, bent his ear about the property. There is a law that requires base closure properties to be purchased at fair market value. The money is not available and Clinton's administration has committed to help cities take title to the land with minimum costs and trouble.

The IDVA (Inland Valley Development Agency) are working on a plan to obtain 400 acres for development for a world trade center.

Others on the dais with the president were, Congressman Jerry Lewis, Senators Barbara Boxer and Dianne Feinstein, Swen Larson, Airport Authority, Sheila Widnall, Air Force Secretary. He credited the attention to Norton on Feinstein and Boxer, who will stay with an issue until "sooner or later, you just say all right whatever you want, take it and run." He additionally said Brown, Lewis, Eaves and Mayor Tom Minor were a big part of the re-use success.

LONG BEACH: "I didn't really expect anything like what happened," said Riverside North's Joanna Hayes, who came up golden in the 100 and 300-meter hurdles and the triple jump.

Well, Hayes' words probably ranged true for almost all of the hundreds of high school track and field athletes who descended on Long Beach Veterans Stadium competing in the California Interscholastic Fed-time you bring hundreds of hungry, talented and determined athletes - all primed to unleash personal best - together, anything can happen. . . and usually does.

What happened for Hayes, a junior, was a memorable day that saw her grit and clawed her way to three individual Division 2 titles. First, Joanna ran the fastest time of any division in winning the 100 hurdles (14.53 seconds). Then she regrouped and out-legged the field to hoist the 300 hurdles title (44.27). For good measure, she leaped 36 feet, 5 1/2 inches, to win the triple jump title, too. And if that wasn't enough, Hayes ran a solid leg on North's second place 1,600 relay team.

Winning any event is cause for personal celebration, but Hayes says that the 100 hurdles the difference in the end."

In the sprints, Bryan Howard of Moreno Valley Canyon Springs and Pat Johnson of Redlands, continued on a collision course toward the State titles in the 100 and 200. Both won each sprint in their divisions.

Howard didn't just win the 100, he ran the fifth fastest time ever in the state, as he ate up the track with a 10.50. He followed that up with a 20.76 in the 200. Howard's 200 time broke a 18 year old Division 2 record. He also, anchored the first place 400 relay squad (42.15).

Johnson kept pace by overwhelming the Division 1 sprint field. He moved down the track in 10.61 and 21.25, in capturing the 100 and 200 titles.

Howard and Johnson are two of the best sprinters in the nation and this fact hasn't been lost on either runner.

"We both are going to be out to win," said Howard, the defending State 100 champion. "It's going to be a great race. I feel like I'm about ready to peak at the Masters."

Added Johnson: "I know I've got to run a great race against Bryan. Whoever wins the race will probably have to break a record."

Eisenhower's Art Lloyd, continued his battle with Camarillo's Jeremy Fischer, the top high jumper in the nation. Fischer won the Division 1 high jump with a leap of 7-2 1/4, with Lloyd taking second at 7-0. But Lloyd reverse their finishes in the long jump, winning the title at 23-1 1/2, while Fischer took second at 22-7 1/4.

Riverside La Sierra's Tyree Washington, a junior, served notice that Fischer and Lloyd had better come ready, because he served up the longest jump of the day in winning the Division 3 title. Washington flew 23- 4 1/2. He also won the 400 with a respectable 47.84, that ended up being the third fastest, regardless of division.

Washington down played his fantastic 400 race, noting he had a "slight muscle pull and could not fully extend" and was happy to qualify for the Masters. Well, he did more than qualify, he proved he is one of the top 400 runners and long jumpers in the state.

San Bernardino Cajon's Veronica Carter was one of the meets top stories. Carter, only a freshman, culminated her meteoric rise to the top of the Division 2 400 class with a solid victory. She ran a respectable 56.74.

"I knew I could run, but it did come fast (the CIF title)," explained Carter after receiving her first place medal. "You really never know what's going to happen here. . . but, It's a great feeling being champion."

Canyon Springs' Madinah Ali, was another busy athlete. She won the 200 in 24. 84 and ran a strong 12.31 in the 100 for second place. In addition, Ali anchored the 400 and 1,600 relay teams to CIF titles.

"I'm glad I won," said Ali about her 200 race. "I just tried to relax and maintain my speed in that last 100 meters of the race."

Other area qualifiers in Division 1 were: Eisenhower's Demond Birks came in second in both the 100 (10.81) and 200 (21.58). Moreno Valley's Shania Edwards took second in the high jump (5-8) and also qualified in the 300 hurdles (45.30) with a fifth place finish.

Other area qualifiers in Division 2 were: Upland's fantastic 110 hurdler, Gerimi Burleigh, won CIF with a time of 14.50. Riverside Poly's Coleman Johnson took first in the discus (174-6) and qualified in the shot put, also. Johnson's teammate, Jared Lewis, a junior, qualified in the long jump with a leap of 22-6 and just missed qualifying in the 400 (49.02) and in the 1,600 relay (3:23.60).

Riverside Ramona's Ricardo Villalobos came in second in the 800 (1:55.94), as did Rubidoux's Ronnie Gibbs in the 3,200 (9:23.96). Canyon Springs' Latoya Lejay finished fourth in the triple jump (35-11), but qualified. Steve Campbell of Rancho Cucamonga Alta Loma, took third in the 400 (48.01).

The only other area qualifier in Division 3 is: La Sierra's Calvin Grissom, who took second in the long jump (22-7 1/2).

From the Divisional championships, the top nine times or distances in any division qualified for the Masters Meet this brought her the most joy, because "I just wanted to win it so bad and it was like. . ."

Focus On Trends

By Alison Deyette
(NAPS)—Joan Walters has sprung an incredible new collection of relaxed silhouettes with the introduction of a first-ever fabric construction. The "Americana Crinkle" collection is made with Fortrel Microspun in a new micro-crinkle fabric. This new textured fabric is a high-tech updated version of a combination of seersucker and gingham. The three key benefits of this appealing new fabrication are fluidity, washability and texture. The collection includes trousers, a boyfriend jacket, reversible vest, drawstring pants, shorts, long skirt, camp shirt and more offered in three combinations of red, navy or black with white. Also part of the collection is a replacement to the old-fashioned seersucker of the 50's. This classier version comes in solid white, red, navy or black with the seersucker stripe of the same solid color. The "Americana Crinkle" will have a special hangtag for each garment defining the superior qualities of this new textured MicroSpun formation including the exciting news that the pieces are machine washable. Joan Walters is sold in specialty and department stores like Nordstrom and Dillard's.

The African American Empowerment Alliance, a coalition of ministers, publishers and businesses has begun a "Get Out The Vote" effort through churches up and down the state. The publishers have committed to providing a forum for information to voters beyond what has been afforded in the past. This will include a profile of each candidates record on African American issues. Coalition building throughout the state will demonstrate the power that can be utilized at the ballot box. Candidates who want to win must articulate a plan of action and demonstrate a willingness to work with African American voters. They must respond to the tangible concerns of people of color. We can empower ourselves by VOTING -- "The squeaky wheel gets the grease."

MORENO VALLEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT SCHOOL ATTENDANCE ENROLLMENT OPTIONS INTRA DISTRICT TRANSFER APPLICATION INFORMATION

For the 1994-1994 school year, the Moreno Valley Unified School announces that families wishing to enroll their students in a school outside their attendance area may do so by completing an application for IntraDistrict Transfer. applications are available at school sites or may be obtained at the Facilities Department located at the address listed below. Requests for intradistrict transfers to schools within this school district are due at the Facilities Department at the Community Education Center, 25634 Alessandro Boulevard, Moreno Valley by 4:30 p.m. on May 27th. All applications received prior to the deadline will be processed and notification will be sent out by June 17th. a separate intradistrict transfer request must be completed for each student in a family who desires a transfer.

Students currently attending school outside their attendance area based upon an approved intradistrict transfer do not have to reapply, if they are planning on staying at that school. Current intradistrict transfers may continue unless that attendance displaces a student who lives in the attendance boundary. Students currently attending elementary or middle school on an intradistrict transfer and being promoted to the next level will need to reapply if they are planning on attending a middle school or high school outside their attendance area.

Requests to attend outside your established school attendance area can be accommodated when space is available. In the event that requests for intradistrict transfers exceeds the available capacity of a school, random and unbiased selection process will be used. A waiting list may be established.

Information on schools and their programs can be obtained by contacting individual schools or by calling 485-5600 extension 140 and listening to a recorded message. A brochure explaining school programs and choice options will be available May 20th, at the Community Education Center and school sites. Information on the application process can be obtained by calling the Facilities Department at 485-5600 ext. 2295.
